Our focus this week is:-
Push your chair in.

Last Wednesday, our music class had a special visitor named Jorge, who came to share some of the instruments he plays.

Jorge brought along a double bass, which produced a very deep and rich sound. Students had the opportunity to try playing the instrument themselves by using the bow and plucking the strings. It was exciting to experience how such a large instrument creates its unique sound.

Jorge also brought a guitar and played several songs for the class. He accompanied us on the guitar as we sang Yellow Submarine, making the song even more enjoyable and helping everyone join in with confidence.

The visit was a fun and engaging experience that gave students the chance to learn about different instruments and enjoy making music together.
